ANTI-DRUG CLUB - INTRA COLLEGIATE COMPETITIONS

The Anti-Drug Club (ADC) of Chellammal Women's College organized Intra-Collegiate Poster Making and Oratorical Competitions on 23rd December 2024. About 40 students participated with real creativity, expressing their thoughts on drug abuse as well as drug trafficking and its impact on millions of lives.

Dr. V. Kavitha, the ADC's Nodal Officer, began with welcoming remarks emphasizing the role of students in fostering a drug-free society.

The Principal, Dr. V. Malarvizhi addressed the gathering and highlighted the need for proactive measures and initiatives that has to be taken by the ADC to eradicate drug abuse in society. She further encouraged the students to act as ambassadors of the drug-free lifestyle spreading awareness among their peers and community.

Dr. V. Mahalakshmi Natchathiram, Head of the Department of Commerce and Committee Member, elaborated on the importance of collective community efforts in promoting a drug-free environment. Later the students took part in the Oratorical Competition, captivating the audience with their enchanting and informative speech.

The students were also engaged in the poster-making competition and depicted their colourful and thought-provoking posters on Anti-Drugs with titles such as "Chase your Dreams- Not Drugs", "It's Never Too Late to Stop", "Drugs Aren't Cool, They Make You Fool", "Choose Health Not Drugs", "Kick Drugs Before They Kick You", etc.

The programme concluded with the Prize distribution ceremony for the winners of the contests. The Competition has successfully created an impact on the participants by insisting on a deeper sense of the understanding of the dangers of drugs.
